

Karmic debt - Magistrate

Do you [magistrates name] deny that this is a private bar guild meeting operating out of public court house to create the illusion that you the man/woman doing business as magistrate of [name of court], have authority to rule over the people who enter this building seeking justice?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that you operate from an ancient superstition known as the 12 presumptions of Roman Canon Law that runs from the presumption that members of your secret cult known as the Private Bar Guild are public trustees acting as judges, prosecutors and magistrates and that so long as the presumption is not challenged, you [magistrates name] are immune from any personal accountability for your actions so long as you [magistrates name] gain consent regardless of the intent with malice to use word spell magic to deceive unsuspecting men/women into contracting as a legal fiction for the purpose of harvesting and plundering the fraudulently created Cestui Que Vie trust that converts men and women born of nature into soulless dead entities known as corporations, as soon as they are born?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the secret oath you take to the Private Bar Guild is a cult superstition created to instil the belief that you [magistrates name] can shield yourself from the karmic debt that is released when you act to deceive living men and women with a soul that is eternal, to act as surety for the fraudulently created corporate fiction that appears on the paper that sits before you?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the act of malicious intent to have I, [your name] a living man/woman, of nature, with a soul that is eternal, act a surety for a fraudulently created corporate fiction for the purpose of creating a debt instrument which then gets converted by the maker of said instrument to income, is by definition money laundering and requires you [magistrates name] to make a conscious decision to carry out said action in order to bring misery and suffering into reality?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the legal definition of legal is the undoing of Gods Law?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the definition of Satan is one who is an adversary or the one who opposes the real order in the universe known as natural, spiritual, moral, cosmic and gods law?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that this room is a contest arena for invoking dead legal entities to act in opposition to one another as depicted by the all capitals corporate title Vs another all capitals corporate title hence setting up the unnatural state of opponents where the 'winner' takes the spoils?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the ancient superstition you and your cult belief system operate from seeks to invert the laws put in place by a higher force and form of intelligence than man, in order to rule over all life forms on this planet?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the ancient superstition you operate from is an expression of moral relativism which is the second tenet of satanism hence a cult ritual that inverts the laws of creation where all men are born free to justify the diseased belief that there exists a superior class of beings that are entitled to become self-appointed gods ruling over man with absolute power and impunity, escaping the consequences built into the fabric creation for such behaviour?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that you are consciously aware of the transgressions you commit against the laws of creation upon which you rely, not only for your survival but the quality of your existence, and that is why you cannot escape the karmic debt no matter how often you participate in the rituals of your cult, as evidenced by the sheer scale and magnitude of the illicit substance and alcohol abuse along with the diseased perversions you participate in privately?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that there is no job title, no theatre production, no cult ritual, no standing army of armed police enforcement agents that can shield you from the moral guilt and karmic debt that you are personally responsible for while doing business as magistrate of [name of court] and that the sheer magnitude of the debt you have incurred from years of harvest and plunder which is so immense, that it will haunt your soul for eternity?

Do you [magistrates name] deny that the only way to atone for the transgressions you commit against the laws of creation is to stand before a jury of the people and publicly confess the transgressions you have committed with an authentic intention to accept the judgement of the very people you have transgressed against in order to mitigate the level of karmic debt that burdens your soul?

I [your name] in full knowledge of the transgressions you [magistrates name] doing business as magistrate of [name of court] registered as a private corporation as evidenced by [ABN number and GST registration date] are committing, reject all your devious and deceptive attempts to have I [your name] hold the karmic debt for your malicious intent to harvest and plunder my soul through the strategy of appropriating fear and magic word spells to gain what your cult defines as consent, hereby publicly proclaim the full karmic debt and moral culpability released for said transgressions rest solely with you [magistrates name] for eternity.
